Orphan Officer's Statement

Mohammed's favourite hobbies are breeding birds and photography. He enjoys good health and he has no health problems. Mohammed is a prep school student; he is in class 8 and his achievement is good. His favourite subject is Arabic but he needs supplementary lessons in English. Mohammed lives with his mother and siblings in a flat of their own. The living condition is simple and the home does not contain luxurious contents. The family does not have a reliable source of income and they depend on IR sponsorship which helps to secure the family's basic needs such as food, drink, and clothing. The mother thanks you a lot for your sponsorship and wishes that you continue your support to Mohammed as it is very important especially in these hard conditions that they pass through.
